

SELECT COMMITTEE ON LEGISLATIVE ETHICS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEMBER VACANCY

AS 24.60.130, AS 24.60.131, and AS 24.60.134. The Select Committee on Legislative Ethics (committee) is comprised of nine members; five public members and four legislators. One alternate public member shall be appointed to serve on the committee. Public members serve a three-year term and may be reappointed. The Chief Justice of the Alaska Supreme Court nominates public members. Nominees must be ratified by two thirds of the full membership of the House and Senate.

Public member terms expire on the first day of the legislative session. A public member continues in office until a successor has been appointed and ratified or until the 30th calendar day of the first legislative session that follows the successor's appointment, whichever is earlier.

A list of legislators and public members currently serving on the committee can be found at: <http://ethics.akleg.gov/committee.php> or obtained by calling 269-0150.
