APPOINTMENT PROCESS TO THE ETHICS COMMITTEE

All members serve a two-year term. Public members Skip Cook, Marianne Stillner and Herman Walker Jr terms expire in 2005. In early December, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Alexander Bryner, renominated all three for another term. The Senate and House Judiciary Committees will hold confirmation hearings in 2005. The appointments must be ratified by two-thirds of the full membership of both houses. A joint session is not required.

All legislative members terms expire on the first day of the 2005 legislative session. Senate President Ben Stevens and House Speaker John Harris along with Senate Minority Leader Johnny Ellis and House Minority Leader Ethan Berkowitz each appoint a legislator for the 2005-06 term. The four legislators appointments must ratified by a roll call vote of two-thirds of the full membership of each respective body. A joint session is not required.

QUOTE OF THE MONTH: “To inspire public trust and integrity we cannot rely alone on formal laws, codes, and institutional reforms – that is, institutional integrity... We need also to reinvoké personal integrity, trust, and other ethical values.”

Rosamund Margaret Thomas, “Public Trust, Integrity, and Privatization,” Public Integrity, Summer 2001
