SELECT COMMITTEE ON LEGISLATIVE ETHICS SEPTEMBER 2024 Special Edition

Ethics Committee Welcomes New Administrator Kevin Reeve

Kevin Reeve

The Select Committee on Legislative Ethics is pleased to announce the hire of Kevin Reeve as the new Ethics Committee Administrator. His first day was Monday, September 9, 2024.

Kevin has a varied background working in Alaska and internationally. For over twenty years he has worked as a federal regulator, state emergency planner, and regulatory compliance manager in the oil and aviation industries. Kevin has had the distinct pleasure of working with native elders delivering cultural awareness training related to oil exploration.

Kevin has experience working with politically appointed and elected officials. He spent three years leading Marines assigned to embassies and missions across Europe, and managing the local aviation security impacts after 9/11.

Kevin looks forward to giving back to the great State of Alaska, and fellow residents.

Ethics Committee Alternate Public Member Vacancy

Do you know someone interested in serving as an alternate public member on the Ethics Committee? Public members are selected by the Chief Justice of the Alaska Supreme Court and ratified by two thirds of the full membership of the legislature. Public members serve a three-year term.

Interested persons may apply to serve by sending a letter of interest, your resume, and your political affiliation on file with the Alaska Division of Elections to The Honorable Peter Maassen, Alaska Supreme Court, 303 K St., Anchorage, AK 99501.
